

I came across Gay's website on Gumtree while I was in search for a tutor to help enhance my comprehension and reasoning abilities, to help me pass the aptitude test for the Police entrance exam. I did pass the aptitude test, but as I was going through the recruitment process I realised this wasn't the pathway for me.

Six months later I contacted Gay again and asked her if she could help me with my spelling and essay writing abilities so I could sit the Special Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT test). I wanted to try and get into a University to become a Primary school teacher.

I passed.

Thank you Gay, if it wasn't for you, your patience, perseverance and those yummy cookies you had each and every week I could not have gone on this journey and come out the other end with a great big smile on my face. You are an inspiration to many people including me.

You should be very proud of what you have accomplished (especially with me) turning a bricklayer who never finished high school and couldn't spell to save myself, who only wrote invoices out at the end of the week, into someone who is now currently attending Curtin University studying to be a Primary school teacher. You have a unique teaching style like no other, you strive to get the best out of all your students and for that I can't thank you enough.
