

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

My nine year old son has always been behind in his speech and English from an early age due to ongoing ear problems. He has had endless amounts of sessions in speech and phonic training over the last couple of years. As he is still struggling at school we thought he would benefit from a tutor. We were looking for a one on one approach with tutoring as he is easily distracted in a classroom situation and that's how we came across Gay Brown. From the moment we met Mrs Brown we felt that we had made the right decision. She welcomes you and your child into her home with a very friendly but professional manner. Her home is immaculate with a sense of warmth which makes you feel at ease straight away. I had no hesitation in leaving my son with Mrs Brown and he was very comfortable with me doing so.

Over the course of the year my son's ability in reading and writing changed dramatically. This is a credit to Mrs Brown's lessons and I would recommend her to any parent who is looking for a tutor for their child.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs Brown for all her wonderful help and guidance she gave my son over the past year.

Kind Regards
